Re: United States v. Jeffrey Reid, 20 Cr. 583 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

The Government writes to respectfully request an adjournment of the next status conference in the above-captioned case, currently scheduled for April 21, 2020, for approximately 60 to 90 days. The Government is confirming production of all discovery and the adjournment will provide additional time for defense counsel to review discovery and consider what, if any, motions to make. The adjournment will also give the parties an opportunity to explore potential resolutions of the matter. The Government consulted with defense counsel who consents to the adjournment.

Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act between April 21, 2021 through the next scheduled conference, because the “ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). The Government consulted with defense counsel, who does not object to the exclusion of time.

APPLICATION GRANTED

SO ORDERED

VERNON S. BRODERICK

Respectfully submitted,

The status conference scheduled for April 21, 2021 is hereby adjourned to July 23, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. The adjournment is necessary to permit the parties sufficient time to review discovery, and discuss a possible pretrial disposition of this matter. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Accordingly, it is further ordered that the time between April 21, 2021 and July 23, 2021 is hereby excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161 (h) (7)(A), in the interest of justice.
